

Maasai & Safari Adventure in Kenya

June 17-30, 2025

Discover the Beauty of Africa

Maasai Culture Safari Adventure

The Maasai tribe in Kenya has a proud heritage that has been admired for its courage to protect its culture and its generosity towards wayfarers and people in need. They have also helped to cultivate the values associated with hospitality.

The Maasai Culture and Safari Adventure travelers will be embraced with this welcoming spirit and will become familiar with the natural beauty of the Rift Valley.

Medical Mission Health Fair

Participants who have either an interest in or expertise with health care will support Kenyan health care professionals in a public health fair planned during this trip.

Individuals with experience in dentistry, pharmacology, ophthalmology, epidemiology or maternal care are particularly encouraged to attend.

Tour Leader

David Weeks, President of Wings of Hope Global Cooperative and Kikanae Punyua, President of the Osiligi (Hope) Foundation in Kenya will be directing this Maasai Culture and Safari Adventure in June 2025. Mr. Weeks has traveled twelve times to Kenya to work with his Maasai partner, Kikanae Punyua on the health care needs of the Maasai in the Narok region.

TRAVEL COST

The Maasai and Safari Adventure will cost $1,426.00 which includes food, lodging, ground transportation, insurance, & tourist fees. A $250 deposit is required. Air Fare from U.S. to Kenya not included – est. $1600.00.
